

EMPLOYEE'S COMPENSATION INSURANCE POLICY

Prospectus

Employee's Compensation Insurance Policy is for employers for covering the expenses or cost of legal liabilities towards an employee due to injury, temporary or permanent disability or death of an employee in the workplace during the course of employment.

Employees compensation Insurance Policy is the primary method by which an employer can demonstrate the ability to satisfy the obligations imposed by the employees' compensation statutes. It is compensation payable under a scheme set out in the Employees Compensation Act, 1923 (the said "Act").

The Insurance provides for Indemnity against legal liability for accidents to employees under the Employees Compensation Act, 1923 (the said "Act") and subsequent amendments of the said Act prior to the date of the issue of the policy including Employees Compensation (Amendment) bill 2009 and under Common Law only.

Who needs this policy?

- Any employer, whether as a principal or contractor, engaging "employees" as defined in the Employee's Compensation Act, 1923.
- Any employer of such employees who do not qualify as an employee as per the said act but, virtue of the nature of engagement with an employer, share a like employee-employer relationship

Scope of Cover:

The Policy is meant to indemnify the Insured in respect of all sums for which the Insured shall be so liable and will, in addition, be responsible for all costs and expenses incurred with its consent in defending any claim for such compensation that may arise during the period of insurance due to any employee, in the Insured's immediate service, sustaining personal injury by accident or disease arising out of and in the course of his employment, by the Insured, in the Business.

The policy covers legal liability of an employer under:

- Employee's Compensation Act, 1923, and subsequent amendments of the said Act prior to the date of issuance of a policy.
- Common law, only up to the limit of indemnity agreed under the respective policy.
